NURSING ASSOCIATION REPORT

REPORT OF HEALTH OFFICER 1925

As a general thing the health of the town is good. The first of the year we had an outbreak of scarlet fever, having twenty-three cases. It extended to different parts of the town. Most of the cases were mild but a few were quite sick, but none were fatal. All contagious diseases no matter how mild must be reported to the Health Officer.

The sanitary condition of the Town is very good. I have had only one or two complaints the past year and those were attended to. The drinking water of the Town is very good.

L. G. HILDRETH, M. D.,
Health Officer.

The Marlboro Community Nursing Association submits the following reports for year ending December 31st, 1925.

Several changes have taken place in our association during the past year. At the annual election of officers in June our founder and president, Mrs. Kate K. Davis, felt that she must resign, in order to use her influence and strength in a larger field of activity. We do feel, however, that we still have her good will and best wishes. Then in October we were saddened by the death of Mr. Robert L. Whitney who had been most actively interested, and our treasurer ever since the beginning of our organization. The loss of these two has seemed to us who are left to be a challenge to carry on the fine work they began, as well as we possibly can.

The number of nursing calls the past year exceeded the year before by 227 calls. This does not mean that our Town has been more unhealthy but that more people are learning to depend on Miss Burke, our Community Nurse. The number of calls from all classes of patients has increased proportionately. In February Miss Burke spent 42½ hours in the schools, examining the students' throats during the scarlet fever epidemic, and sending home for observation any questionable ones. This may have helped in preventing a more serious time than be had. In May, Child Health Week was observed. All merchants co-operated by making special window displays, and Mr. McRoy kindly gave the association the use of his store window for special displays. The school board and teachers in all schools helped by assisting their pupils in making health posters, the best of which from each grade were exhibited. Three health talks were given to the school children, "Daily Health Hints" by Miss Mabelle A. Philbrick, R. N. Pres. of the Nurses' Alumnae Association of Keene; "Health and Clean-up Week," by Dr. L. G. Hildreth; and "Tuberculosis," by Miss Mildred Gage, R. N., Cheshire Tuberculosis nurse. In November we assisted at a clinic for underweight school children conducted by Miss Gage and Dr. Robert B. Kerr, examining physician for the N. H. Tuberculosis Association. Dr. Kerr emphasized the great need of dental work among our pupils, and of special care for our high percentage of underweights.

This next year we intend to make periodic visits to the mothers and take a history of all children born in Marlboro since January 1923. This is being done in many towns in our state under the direction of the State Board of Health, and should prove of invaluable aid to school boards and examining physicians in the future, as well as giving the mothers an opportunity of the co-operation of a competent nurse in raising a healthy family.

Financially we have found few changes necessary. Our expenses have been a little higher. Our nursing fees have remained the same except in the obstetrical service which we have raised from 75c for each postpartum visit to $1.00. We are deeply indebted to the generous financial aid of two citizens of Marlboro, Mrs. Kate K. Davis, and Mrs. S. D. Bush.

The ladies of the churches have been very kind in making dressings for us as we needed them. Also we would take this opportunity to thank all who have aided us this past year in any way, and to offer our services in any way we can to make Marlboro a healthier and happier town.

Respectfully submitted,

RUTH E. HEMENWAY,

President.

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

To the School Board and Citizens of Marlborough:

I herein submit my third annual report as superintendent of your schools.

Horace Mann Said: "Whatever ground of confidence there may be for the perpetuation of our civil and religious liberties; whatever prospect of the elevation of our posterity; whatever faith in the general Christianization of the world—these aspirations and this faith depend on teachers, more than upon any, more than upon all other human instrumentalities united."

Whether you accept this statement in its entirety or not, you cannot deny the fact that millions of children now have a better chance in life because of the work of Horace Mann.

Our democracy is surer, our ideals of living and serving are higher because of his life.

Our free public school system of New England owes to him a debt larger than to any other man.

But, as is the teacher so is the school, is an old maxim of American life.

We trust that the accomplishments of your school children during the past year as outlined in this report will make the taxpayer feel compensated for his labor, the parents for their sacrifices and the boys and girls of Marlborough may have a better chance in life because of these opportunities.

HIGH SCHOOL

High schools of today are attempting to adjust the relationships between vocational education and the so-called liberal education, to adjust the boy and girl to the economic and social life of his time. Just how far the Marlborough High School is attaining these ends may be judged from a brief outline of the work carried on.

It is the function of the school to help the coming generation of citizens to be clear and straight-forward in their thinking, to understand their own relations to their government, to find their proper place for service in a trade, industry or profession and to co-operate with others as effectively as possible.

To do this demands (1) health, (2) mental power and activity, (3) a well developed body, (4) conformity to moral and spiritual laws.

Headmaster Bissell reports the following facts:

I. "The time put on the Fundamentals during the latter part of the school year 1924-25 was two hours per week. At present, we are putting about an hour a week on Fundamentals.

II. "The work in Manual Training has progressed much more rapidly now that the quarters for the Manual Arts have been thoroughly renovated and equipped. Since our last report the benches have been fitted with tool shelves, vises and bench stops. There is now plenty of room for present requirements. A supply of new tools was added this year consisting of chisels, planes, hammers and other equipment needed for the coming year.

"There are twenty-six boys taking up the work and each is required to make some useful article either for the school or for home use.

"Desks, tables and chairs for the school have been repaired. Bookcases have been installed in two of the rooms.

"Some of the articles made for home use include bookcases, music stands and other tables of various description.

III. "There are thirteen boys and girls taking typewriting and stenography. The only new equipment needed will be exchanging two old typewriters for new ones. By exchanging every two years, it keeps our machines in good condition all the time.

IV. "There are twenty-nine pupils taking bookkeeping.

V. "Thirteen pupils are taking the academic course.

VI. "There are twenty-five girls in Junior High taking the domestic-arts course. In the High School, sixteen girls take the domestic-arts course.

ATHLETICS

VII. (1) "Baseball season 1924-25 ended with a record of eight wins and seven defeats. The team finished second in the Monadnock League, winning four games out of six.

(2) "The basketball season of 1924-25 was successful. Marlboro High won the right to represent this district at the State tournament at the University of N. H. Marlboro finished second in the Monadnock League, winning eight out of ten games. Season's record was fifteen wins and nine defeats.

(3) "The basketball season for 1925-26 shows that Marlboro High has ten wins to her credit and eight defeats. We stand in second place in the Monadnock League.

"The girl's team so far this season has a good record standing second in the Monadnock League with five wins and one defeat. Season's record is six victories and two defeats.

"Athletics are proving their worth in Marlboro High School by raising the scholarship and increasing the school spirit.

"We wish to thank the public for the generous manner in which they are giving their support to our athletic teams.

LITERARY ACTIVITIES

VIII. "The annual Prize Speaking contest was held in the Town Hall May 23, 1925.

"The winners were Carolyn Parker, first and Emily Bouvier second for the girls.

"Burnell White first and Omer Croteau second for the boys.

(2) "There were several debates held in school on current topics.

(3) "The annual school play, 'The Little Clodhopper,' was presented by an able cast February 20, 1925. The following is the cast.

Carolyn Parker, 'The Little Clodhopper.

Aileen Page, Mrs. Chiggerson Boggs.

Anita Desjardins, Miss Charmain Carter.

Dorothy Harris, Julietta Bean.

Earl Bosworth, Septimus Green.

Oscar Croteau, Ocey Gump.

Lawrence White, George Chiggerson.

"Last but not least our school is opened by reading from the Holy Scriptures, followed by the Lord's Prayer.

"While we do not attempt to teach dogma or creed, bible history or bible biographical characters except so far as they are correlated with our world history, yet we do try to inculcate in all our teaching characteristic attributes of the Christian, viz, honor, honesty, loyalty, obedience, faith, love and charity; that above all the exact science of the universe, whether it be the molecular laws of physics, or the ions of chemistry or the nebulae of the heavens there is one master mind which we call God, the Great Teacher of the universe.

"At the beginning of the present year, due to resignations and new alignment of studies, changes were made in our teaching staff. The following new teachers were elected: Miss Francis Copp, a graduate of Smith College, Latin and French; Miss Anna Larson, a graduate of Keene Normal, Domestic Arts and English; Miss Margaret M. Martin, a graduate of Keene Normal, Junior High mathematics and English.

"The school has been approved for the year 1925-26 by Commissioner Butterfield. This indicates four things in regard to our school.

(1) "From a quantitative standpoint the school covered the state requirements last year.

(2) "The teachers have the required professional preparation to fit them for their subjects.

(3) "The course of study for this year is approved.

(4) "In the opinion of the High School Agent as a result of his inspection the school is doing satisfactory work.

"The quality of our work cannot be entirely determined by inspection, examinations or the teacher's rank book but rather by the abilities of our graduates to carry on successfully work in higher institutions of learning or by the ease by which they adapt themselves to the realities of life.

"The school has the largest enrollment since it became a four year high school and we expect to graduate a class of fifteen in June."

ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS

Judging from the impressions received from frequent inspections of the grades and from results obtained with standard tests, I feel safe in saying that the grades have maintained their usual reputation for efficiency in teaching and results of strenuous drill work.

The following standard tests were given during the year: Ayres Spelling, Charter's English, Woody McCall Arithmetic, and Stanford's Achievement.

The results in all tests showed a normal year's growth in mental attainments, the classes well graded, and with few exceptions, every pupils in his right grade.

The corps of teachers for the year ending in June 30, 1925, remained the same as the previous year.

If there is one thing more than another that has added efficiency to your school system it is the fact that your grade schools have not been submitted to the ordeal of a continued change of teachers which is ruinous to any school system.

At the beginning of the present year we were compelled to submit to one change of teachers. Miss Flora Applin an efficient teacher for many years in our grades, resigned in order to accept a position in Keene. We all realized our heavy loss to the system but consoled ourselves in the fact that our loss was Keene's gain. Miss Applin would continue to train boys and girls in mental activities and develop them into noble men and women. While she had been a fundamental pillar to our system, she would now enter a broader field of service.

Miss Grace Larabee was transferred from the Wallace Schools. Miss Larabee has the school well in hand and gives promise of a successful year.

Miss Vera Leets, a teacher of Roxbury school for two years was transferred to the Wallace school.

At this time of writing, I am pleased to report a wholesome co-operation of teachers and excellent school spirit existing throughout your entire system of schools.

Thrift has not been overlooked in our school program. We have tried to teach its fundamental elements along three lines, (1) the economic use of the pupils' time, (2) economic use of books, school supplies, and (3) by starting deposits in the Savings Bank.

Miss Holt reports the following:

Number of depositors,	50
Amount deposited,	$92 71

If there is one thing more than any other that should be instilled into the boys and girls of today next to the three R's should come the vital elements of thrift.

• HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATION

On the evening of June 18, the following pupils were graduated: Earl K. Bosworth, Irving G. Deberse, Annie E. Hackler, Aileen M. Page. Clarence Richardson and Irene M. Wyman.

On the following evening a reception was given to the citizens and friends.

Miss Aileen Page is continuing her studies at Simons College. Miss Irene Wyman at Boston Homeopathic.

HEALTH ACTIVITIES

In October the usual examination of children was made by Dr. L. G. Hildreth assisted by the district nurse Eva Burke. Cards giving the defects found were sent to all parents. Arrangements are being made for a dental clinic to be held soon. Miss Burke submits the following results of a clinic for underweight pupils.

To the Clarence J. Croteau Post American Legion we wish to express our appreciation and thanks for the American flags presented. They presented one flag for our pole in the school yard and one for each room of the building also one for the Wallace School.

In the presentation exercises an expressive lesson in the American civics was given to the children. On behalf of the school board, teachers, and children, we extend our appreciation.

MUSIC

Mr. Harry Davis who had supervised our music for several years having resigned in order to accept a position as instructor of music in the Keene High School and the Normal School.

Miss Geneva Jean Howe of Lisbon, N. H., a graduate of Keene Normal was elected as a teacher of music in our public schools. Miss Howe took up the work very readily where Mr. Davis had left it, and we have many reasons for feeling encouraged with the progress that has been made during the past year in music.

Our first step in the lower grades was to develop good music readers and much time has been given to this phase.

The ease and rapidity with which the lower grade children read at sight with syllables assures us that this is being accomplished. Individual reading and singing is encouraged and we notice that children in the grades are eager to sing. Indeed, children like to do what they can do well, and individual work if carried on from the first grade up, can be done in the higher grades.

Some time has been devoted to musical appreciation and ear training.

This is a most important part of the musical education for it interests the children and tends to quicken real musical growth.

Excellent results are being obtained in the junior, senior, high concert singing. And Miss Howe has in view the organization of a Boys Glee Club and also a Girls Glee Club.

Is it not true that glee clubs, orchestras, and fine choruses advance the standing of a high school?

Some people think music is not practical, yet it is said that music stands third in the list of industries, rated according to their earning capacities in this country. But the greater part of these earnings goes to the citizens of foreign lands. Why? Because our people are not prepared to fill the positions. We are not yet a musically educated people. From a psycholological standpoint, no study is better for training in quick perception and accuracy of thought and expression and the discipline of emotion and will. Indeed, music is the language of the soul.

We know the value of music in organization and discipline in time of war, we shall realize some day that it is just as indispensable in times of peace and its cultivation must begin with the training of little children. Children may forget their Latin or whatnot but they remember the songs they have learned, and nothing will do more to build up a community spirit and make good neighbors than singing and playing together.

In conclusion, I wish to acknowledge the cordial co-operation of citizens, parents and teachers and express my gratitude to the school board who have given liberally of their time and energy for the good of the school system.

Respectfully submitted,

FREDERICK T. JOHNSON,

Superintendent of Schools.
